Hi Elyssa,

I just listened to your voicemail. Thank you for touching base. I'm hoping to get the BEANs out for the aldicarb in the next couple of hours and follow up with a team meeting invitation for next week.

As far as the PQZ is concerned, Amy raised some good points and I will need to talk with the registrant to get a bit more information. I also talked with HED this morning and with the information that the registrant provided, that a pre-submission meeting might be in order.

Anyway, thanks again for following up and you should be seeing that BEAN for aldicarb today.

Thanks.
Debra
